TERMS OF JUDGMENT/ORDER

VERDICT, ORDER OR DIRECTION:

Hearing of Originating Process filed 16 September 2025.

Affidavits read. Exhibits marked.

Submissions.

Ex tempore judgment delivered on extension of convening period.

Black J makes orders (as amended) in accordance with Short Minutes of Order initialled by him and placed in the file.

THE COURT ORDERS THAT:

1. Pursuant to section 439A(6) of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (the Act), the date of the convening period, as defined by section 439A(5) of the Act, within which the Plaintiffs must convene the Second Meetings of the Companies as required by section 439A of the Act, be extended up to and including 27 January 2026.

2. Pursuant to section 447A(1) of the Act, Part 5.3A of the Act is to operate in relation to the Companies such that the Second Meetings may be convened and held, at any time during, or within five (5) business days after, the end of the convening period, as extended by order 1 above, notwithstanding the provisions of section 439A(2) of the Act.

Notification of the application and orders

3. Pursuant to section 447A(1) of the Act, Part 5.3A of the Act is to operate in relation to the Companies as if any notice required to be given under sections 75-225(1) and 75-15 of the Insolvency Practice Rules (Corporations), 2016 (Cth) (Rules) will be validly given to the creditors of the Companies (including persons claiming to be creditors) by reason of the following steps having been taken not less than 5 business days prior to the date of the proposed meeting:

a. where the First Plaintiff:

- i. has an email address for a creditor, by sending such notice electronically to the email address of the creditor; and
- ii. do not have an email address for the creditor, by sending the notice by posting a copy of it to the postal address for the creditor;

b. by causing such notice to be published on the website of the First Plaintiff at <https://olveraadvisors.com/creditors>; and

c. by causing the notice to be published on the Australian Securities and Investment Commission (ASIC) published notices website at <https://insolvencynotices.asic.gov.au/>.

Notification of the application

4. The First Plaintiff must take all reasonable steps to cause notice of these orders to be given, within 2 business days of the making of these orders, to:

a. the creditors (including persons or entities claiming to be creditors) of the Companies, in the following manner:

- i. where the First Plaintiff has an email address for a creditor – by notifying each such creditor, via email, of the making of the orders and providing a link to a website where the creditor may download the orders and the Originating Process;
- ii. where the First Plaintiff does not have an email address for a creditor, but have a postal address for that creditor (or have received notification of non-delivery of a notice sent by email in accordance with order 4(a)(i) above), by notifying each such creditor, via post, of the making of the orders and providing a link to a website where the creditor may download the orders and the Originating Process;
- iii. placing scanned, sealed copies of the Originating Process and the orders on the website maintained by the First Plaintiff at “<https://olveraadvisors.com.au/creditors>”; and

b. the ASIC.

Other relief

5. Any person who can demonstrate a sufficient interest has liberty to apply to vary or discharge any orders made pursuant to order 1 to 4 above, on 3 business days’ written notice being given to the Plaintiffs and to the Associate to the presiding Corporations List judge.

6. The Plaintiffs have liberty to apply on three (3) business days’ written notice to the Court in relation to any variation of these orders or any other matter generally arising in the administration of the Companies.

7. The Plaintiffs’ costs and expenses of and incidental to the application are to be treated as costs in the administration of the Companies, jointly and severally.

8. These orders be entered forthwith.

9. The Court Book and exhibits be returned.
